

Approved For Release 1999/09/07 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000200210001-2

In order to acquaint the members of the University Community with some of the basic information about the history, social structure, and current situation concerning Vietnam and to equip students, faculty, and other members of the community with the tools necessary to make intelligent and critical judgements with regard to current developments there, the Cammarian Club, the Student Government of Brown University; the N.S.A. co-ordinator; the Chaplains; the University Christian Movement; the International Relations Club; the Brown Daily Herald; WBRU and other sponsors invite you to register for the following lecture series:

Tues., Oct. 10-- Prof. Frank N. Trager will speak on the early history of Vietnam (Traditional Society, the French Impact, the WW II period, & the Indo-Chinese War). Mr. Trager is Professor of International Affairs at the Graduate School of Public Administration of N.Y.U. and author of Building a Welfare State in Burma (1958), Why Vietnam?, ed. Marxism in Southeast Asia: A Study of Four Countries (1959), and a contributor to Orbis and Asian Survey.

Mon, Oct. 16-- Franklin Weinstein will speak on the Geneva Accords of 1954 and the International Control Commission. Mr. Weinstein is working on his PhD. thesis at Cornell and has been called "one of the foremost experts on the subject of Geneva and the ICC". As part of his study he has conducted one of the most extensive newspaper searches on the Vietnamese press ever conducted.

Mon, Oct. 23--Prof. Lyman Kirkpatrick will speak on the Diem Regime and early U.S. involvement. Mr. Kirkpatrick served with Gen. Bradley in Army Intelligence, with the CIA from 1947-1965, and was Executive-Director of the CIA until he came to Brown in 1965. He is the author of the forthcoming book, The Real CIA.

Mon, Oct. 30--John McDermott will speak about the NLF and the Viet Cong. Mr. McDermott is Associate Editor of Viet-Report magazine, lecturer at the New School of Social Research and author of "A Profile of Vietnamese History" in Viet-Report (July, Aug. & Sept. 1965). He spent Jan. and Feb. of this year in Vietnam and interviewed, during the month of July, various members of the NLF.

Mon, Nov. 6--Tran Van Dinh will speak on the political factions and social matrix of Vietnamese politics. Tran Van Dinh is author of No Passage on the River (1965). He was born in Hue, Vietnam 1923, educated at Quoc College and Hanoi University, military advisor to Prince Souphanouvong, leader of the Free Lao, observer to the U.N. for Vietnam (Oct.-Nov. 1960), Charge d'Affaires and Acting Ambassador to the United States (Sept. 1963), Washington Bureau Chief of the Saigon Post, and numerous other posts with the South Vietnamese government.

Mon, Nov. 13--Prof. Jonathan Mirsky will speak on the current state of American involvement, prospects for the future, and a summary of the program. Mr. Mirsky is professor of Chinese Language and Literature at Dartmouth College and co-author of Peace in Vietnam (rev. 1967)

PREREGISTRATION TODAY, OCT. 4 & TOMORROW, OCT. 5 IN THE FAUNCE HOUSE POST OFFICE LOBBY. For More Information, Call Stan Griffith, 621-9778 or John Salinger, 351-3698.